

Women Making History

Recognizing women leaders in the Commonwealth who are inspirational leaders for women in their workplaces, homes, and communities.

To commemorate March as Women’s History Month, The Kentucky Commission on Women (KCW) is accepting nominations from women and girls who would like to recognize a female mentor/role model who has inspired them to achieve a goal or fulfill a dream. Nominations are being accepted throughout the month of February. The KCW will select up to four individuals to recognize on KCW’s Facebook, Twitter, website, listserv, and media outlets. The women who are chosen will be showcased during an entire week through the outlets described above.

“The work of today is the history of tomorrow, and we are its makers.”

1. Consider the quote above by Juliette Gordon Low. What specific work has your mentor/role model helped you accomplish that has shaped the future of your workplace, home, and/or community? What was her role in helping you accomplish it?
2. “It’s best to have failures happen early in life. It wakes up the Phoenix bird in you so you rise from the ashes.” ~ Anne Baxter.
 - ◇ What failures or obstacles has your mentor/role model faced and how did she overcome them?
 - ◇ What failures or obstacles have you faced and how has your mentor helped you overcome them?
3. “I touch the future. I teach.” Christa McAuliffe spoke these words. She was an American teacher and one of the seven crew members killed in the Space Shuttle Challenger disaster and her legacy remains. What has your mentor/role model taught you and/or others that has influenced your life and that you will pass on to others?
